BUFFALO, NY - Buffalo Arts Studio would like to share its forthcoming roster of educational programming for Fall 2019. Our award-winning educational resources include art classes which span the range of artistic media, including acrylic painting, pottery on the wheel, and Life Drawing.

Additionally, Buffalo Arts Studio has an exciting lineup of classes and topics for our Jump Start students. Jump Start affords opportunities to all youth including economically disadvantaged in the form of free or reduced priced classes, workshops with locally renowned artists, and the opportunity to receive feedback and help developing portfolios for those students who might be interested in pursuing the arts past primary education.

All Fall 2019 Classes, with registration information can be found on our website at <https://www.buffaloartsstudio.org/education/classes/>

Buffalo Arts Studio continues to be a space for arts access, and inclusive learning experiences for children, adults, and arts professionals alike. We sincerely hope you will join us as we endeavor upon our new term of educational offerings. For class information, deadlines, and more information on our Jump Start program, please contact Jayne Hughes, Education Director at the information provided above.
